Celebrating 20 Years of ACS

ACS is 20 years old! We're celebrating this milestone with a game of "20 Questions" with our amazing ACS team!

Jenn Judkins, Senior Communication Manager

1 What's your philosophy for life?

Always treat others with respect, but don't let anyone take advantage of you.

2 Best book you've read lately?

Can't Hurt Me by David Goggins

3 Something you've done in your work that you're most proud of?

Some of the pieces I've written for ACS—particularly those on civic duty/engagement and political dog whistles—have been the catalyst for conversations that have changed minds. That makes me very proud.

4 Favorite watering hole?

My house! It's cheap and I can wear pajamas.

5 One public policy you'd change?

If I could change one public policy, I would implement universal access to affordable, high-quality healthcare to ensure that everyone—regardless of their socioeconomic status—has access to the medical care they need.

6 What made you choose your career path?

Information should be accessible to everyone, and that is accomplished through easy to understand communication. I wanted to be the person who made communication comprehensible, no matter the topic.

7 A favorite mentor?

A lot of my personal and professional advice comes from my sister, who is only four years older than me but, through her work as a teacher and administrator and as a parent to kids older than mine, has seen some stuff and always has wise words.

8 Rock, rap, or country?

90s rap, all the way!

9 Dogs vs. cats: who rules and who drools?

I truly like both, but I like the simplicity of dogs better. They're just happy to be invited!
